lovitz, South Main Street - Third Break Since Wednesday - New Britain Runaway Boys Escape From Cell Room-Fred Wilcox Improving -Farmers' Association Preparing For Active Season,

Another break was reported to the Putnam police Saturday morning. This time A. Sandlovitz, a grocer on South Main street, is the loser. As far kins street motored to Meriden Sun- as can be determined only $3 is missing and perhaps a small quantity of tobacco. This makes the ninth break that has been made in Putnam during Miss Vera Gordon, stenographer in the office of L. A. Bradford, is spending her vacation in Providence.

Miss Helen Heath of East Killingly third break since Wednesday night when Donahue's drug store and substituting in the office of L. A. When Donahue's drug store and Benefit's saloon were entered and con-

Bencit's saloon were entered and considerable loot taken.

The Sandlovitz grocery store is between the City hotel and Love's Monumental works. The store is located on the ground floor and there are sleeping rooms above. The proprietors of the store live over the monument works. There is a small alley between the two buildings and a window from the grocery store opens onlow from the grocery store opens on-o this. The burglars entered this tiley, removed a heavy wire—screen com the window, smashed out a glass and then opened the window.

On the incide the cash register was rifled and some change taken. This register had been left unlocked the night bofe and so there was no trouble setting into it.

A cash drawer was taken out and laced on a barrel. Some cash is gone rom this although 50 pennies were whoever did the work unlocked the front door with a key that was in the lock, and came out to South Main street, closing the door behind. This oh is the most open of any thus far all the breaks in that whoever is do-ng the entering takes practically nothing but cash and not all of that. The police believe that a local gang is responsible for the work and that the breaks are being made by someone who is well acquainted with the places entered.

Mayor Moving House.

Work is progressing rapidly at the corner of Grove and South Main street, where Mayor J. J. McFarry is moving his house, preparatory to erecting a brick block. All-Night Street Lights Required.

Putnam citizens are pointing out hat all night street lights would go a one way in helpigs to stop the work of those who are entering so frequentby within the last few weeks. It is said that the Putnam lights go out at 1 clock after which it is impossible for police to do their work as well as if the lights were going. It certainwould make it much more risky to break in if street lights were shining brightly all over the city.
